Continuation of 2. NOTE: The amendment of claims to recite the purity of the peptide has not been searched and would require additional considerations..

Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant's arguments concerning enablement are not considered persuasive, because the specification has not taught the administration of the claimed peptide to a subject. The references cited are provided as examples of unpredicatability as it pertains to the administration of petpides in general. As such, the claims drawn to a pharmaceutical composition are not enabled.
